

Invitation to Exhibit
Minnesota World Elder Abuse Awareness Day Conference
Wednesday, June 15, 2016

Continuing Education and Conference Center
St. Paul Campus, University of Minnesota

The Minnesota Elder Justice Center invites your organization to be an Exhibitor at the 11th Annual World Elder Abuse Awareness Day (WEAAD) Conference. The overall purpose of World Elder Abuse Awareness Day is to elevate the issue of elder abuse, neglect and financial exploitation and provide education on best practices for prevention and response.

WEAAD has grown rapidly over the years, and provides an opportunity for you to showcase your organization and services to approximately 350 professionals from across Minnesota working with older and vulnerable victims. Conference participants represent a variety of professions including: Adult Protection Workers, Law Enforcement, Social Workers, Attorneys, Victim Advocates, and more.

Full conference information can be found on March 15, 2016 at: elderjusticemn.org

Details regarding exhibit space, fees and expectations for the event follow on the next page. Registering early is encouraged to help assure your organization a spot as exhibitor space is limited to 15 organizations.

The Minnesota Elder Justice Center is a statewide nonprofit organization that works to prevent and alleviate the abuse, neglect, and financial exploitation of elders and vulnerable adults. In addition to supporting victims, training professionals, and reaching public audiences, the Minnesota Elder Justice Center convenes monthly Center Partners educational and networking meetings. The Center Partners consists of a group representing over 50 organizations who work with older or vulnerable adults, and Minnesota's World Elder Abuse Awareness Day Conference is coordinated and presented by members of the Center Partners. Please join us for this conference!
