Webinar: All In the Family: Understanding the Financial Exploitation of Older Family Members | Oct. 30, 2018

Financial exploitation of older Americans is a serious and growing problem. Unfortunately, many perpetrators are relatives, caregivers, or otherwise closely acquainted with the victim. Professionals working with older adults need tools to better understand the prevalence of familial financial exploitation, why it happens, and how to address and prevent it.

Webinar Presenter

Marit Peterson | Program Director

Marit Peterson is the program director for the Minnesota Elder Justice Center. Before joining MEJC, Marit practiced Elder Law in the Twin Cities metro. She is also an adjunct professor of philosophy at Augsburg College, where she teaches ethics and bioethics in the Augsburg Adult Undergraduate program. Marit currently participates in the Minnesota State Bar Association's Elder Law Section on the Governing Council, and Probate and Trust Section.
