Webinar: Understanding the Basics of Elder Abuse, Neglect, and Financial Exploitation

Sept. 25, 2018

Abuse, neglect, and financial exploitation of older Americans is a serious and growing problem. It happens in every community in the county, yet nearly 1 in every 23 instances of elder abuse, neglect, or financial exploitation goes unreported. The true scope of the issue is either unknown or misunderstood by the general public. This webinar presented an overview of the types of elder abuse, causes of elder abuse, how to spot and respond to elder abuse, and issues regarding prevention.

Webinar Presenter

Katie Behrens Prevention and Outreach Coordinator at Minnesota Elder Justice Center

Katie Behrens is the Prevention and Outreach Coordinator for the Minnesota Elder Justice Center. Driven by a passion for social justice, she received her undergraduate degree in Gender, Women, and Sexuality Studies from the University of MN. She later relocated to New York City where she earned her Masters in Public Health with a concentration in Community Health Education from the CUNY School of Public Health at Hunter College.
