WHAT WE DO:

---

The Minnesota Elder Justice Center provides support, information and resources to older or vulnerable adults and their loved ones around issues of abuse, neglect and financial exploitation.

We mobilize communities to prevent and alleviate abuse, neglect, and financial exploitation of older and vulnerable adults at no cost.

WE DO THIS BY:

- Direct services for victims and loved ones
- Community education
- Professional training and technical support to fields working with older or vulnerable adults
- Criminal justice systems training
- Public policy and systems change

TRAINING SESSIONS

---

The Minnesota Elder Justice Center provides both professional training and community education throughout the state of Minnesota. Our training sessions detail best practices; prevention strategies; and other topics related to abuse, neglect, and financial exploitation of older and vulnerable adults. We can tailor our presentations to meet the needs of your organization or group.

Professional training audiences include: health providers in acute and long-term care, law enforcement, social services, financial services, civil legal services and more.

Each June, the Minnesota Elder Justice Center hosts the World Elder Abuse Awareness Day conference for professionals in fields working with older or vulnerable adults.

To schedule a training or get more information, please call us at 651-440-9300.

“2/3 of perpetrators of elder abuse are trusted individuals or family members.”

HELPLINE

The Minnesota Elder Justice Center trained advocates can listen and support victims and loved ones through abuse, neglect and financial exploitation. Along with this support we can:

- Locate needed resources
- Help make sense of complicated systems and processes
- Understand guardianship and conservatorship
- Provide legal systems support

PUBLIC POLICY

---

The Minnesota Elder Justice Center advocates for systems and legislative changes to protect older and vulnerable adults from abuse, neglect and financial exploitation.

Our work includes convening and collaborating with diverse groups; grounding policy advocacy in best practice research; and advocating for root-cause solutions.
