Office of Ombudsman for Long-Term Care

A service of the Minnesota Board on Aging, the Ombudsman advocates for adults needing or receiving long-term care.

The office promotes person-directed living that respects people's values and preferences, and works to preserve individual rights.

Minnesota's Ombudsman for Long-Term Care serves all of Minnesota, with staff based in the Twin Cities and regional offices statewide.

Ombudsmen and volunteers work with individuals, their families, health care and service providers and public agencies to ensure the health, safety, well-being and rights of long-term care consumers.

Ombudsmen also work to improve the health care and social services delivery systems through changes in state and federal law and policy.

Serving

- Nursing home and boarding care home residents
- Those living in other adult care homes, such as assisted living, customized living or foster care
- People receiving home care services
- Medicare beneficiaries with hospital access or discharge concerns
- Anyone seeking information about long-term care services

Helping

Providing information and consultation about:

- Consumer rights
- Service options
- Facility regulations

Investigating and resolving complaints about:
